- Implement and exercise the key pillars of leadership character through extensive practical use.

Students will be expected to participate fully in:

- Completing all the personal relationship tasks and challenges set during the course.
- A leadership coaching relationship.
- Through serving in ENR actively participate in the process of proving character.
- Exercise and practice L115 disciplines and habits in their personal life and relationships as they commit to pursue lifelong character development.

Completing Leadership 115 does NOT:

- Guarantee a role in leadership or within the life of the church.
- Guarantee that a student will proceed to Leadership 215.
- Signify that the student is on the career pathway towards full-time church ministry or that they will be ordained as a pastor within the local church.

FORMAT OF CLASSES

Leadership 115 classes are interactive sessions involving both facilitated group work and lectures. Students are required to come prepared for each session having read the relevant Bible readings and literature for each session. More information on this will be given at the first session on 8 February. Note that there is no pre-reading required ahead of the first session.

Leadership 115 is open to anyone wanting to grow in leadership within the life of Every Nation Rosebank.
